

“Priceless Legacy – Celebrating Moms”
2 Timothy 1: 5

Let's celebrate the important ladies in our lives as gifts from the Lord. The apostle Paul recalls the influence of the sincere faith of a grandmother and mother had on Timothy. Let's hope with moms & parents that this text becomes a reality in our families and relationships.

“I recall your sincere faith that first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and now, I am convinced, is in you also.”

- "Fess Up" When Someone Messes Up (1 John 1:9 and James 5:16)
- Celebrate When Someone Is Rejoicing (Romans 12:15)
- Provide Comfort When Someone Is Hurting (2 Corinthians 1:2–4 and Matt. 5:4)

Prioritize the Simplicity of Love by making a quick phone call or short text, just to communicate with your mom: "I was thinking about you; I miss seeing you; I look forward to seeing you soon"?

You might be amazed at how a few minutes of thoughtful initiative can deepen a relationship.

Experience 1 John 5: 14 – 15 by praying with confident faith:

"Lord, I receive my wife/my husband/my children as gifts from You. I recommit myself to joining You in knowing them deeply and loving them well. Give us a hope-filled home as we deepen our faith in You. Thank You for hearing and answering my prayer. May You continue to build our home in Your ways. "
